2137 Calgary Highlanders RCACC – Highland Kit Policy

1. Purpose
 - a. The purpose of this policy is to clarify the requirements to obtain Highland Kit, the eligibility, procedure to obtain, issuance, and the revocation of Highland Kit privilege.

2. Eligibility
 - a. The following are the eligibility criteria to wear Highland Kit:
 - (1) Glen
 - (a) LCpl and above;
 - (b) Must have a minimum 70% attendance;
 - (c) Dress, drill and deportment must be at or above standard. This will be verified by Cadet's PL WO. Regular dress uniform must pass inspection; and
 - (d) A passing grade of 75% on the Glen test
 - (2) Kilts
 - (a) Sgt and above, playing members of Pipes and Drums, and members of the Rifle Guard;
 - (b) Must have a minimum 70% attendance;
 - (c) Dress, drill and deportment must be at or above standard. This will be verified by Cadet's PL WO. Regular dress uniform must pass inspection; and
 - (d) A passing grade of 75% on the Glen test.

3. Procedure
 - a. The following procedure will be followed in order to obtain a Glen or Kilt:

- (1) Cadet properly fills out Highland Kit Request Form (Annex A). The Cadet's PL WO signs form to verify that their dress (including Regular Dress Uniform inspection), drill and deportment meets or exceeds standard.
- (2) Cadet comes in C1 for inspection by a Senior NCO on the night they wish to write the test. If Cadet does not meet standard, they will be instructed on their deficiencies and will have to correct them prior to writing the test.
- (3) The Cadet will write the Glen or Kilt test.
- (4) If the Cadet passes, the invigilator signs the Highland Kit Request Form, makes a photocopy to place in the Cadet's Pers File, and the Cadet will book appointment with CQ for issue of kit, bringing with them the original Glen/Kilt Test Request Form.
- (5) If the Cadet fails, then they will have to re-write the test on another day. They will need to go through the above process again before being allowed a re-write.

4. Issue of Highland Kit

- a. The successful Cadet will take the completed form to CQ for issue of the kit and for CQ to sign the form. Upon issue of Highland Kit, the completed form comes back to the Orderly Room so that it can be filed in the Cadet's File. CQ can take a photocopy of the completed form and place in the Cadet's clothing documents for the duration of their time with Cadets.
- b. CQ will place a sticker on the Cadet's clothing documents stating that he/she is authorized to wear the Highland Kit.
- c. The Cadet will sign out all Highland Kit and will be responsible for the care, maintenance and security of the kit while in their possession.
- d. The Cadet/Cadet's family will be held financially responsible for any missing Highland Kit that the Cadet has signed for.
- e. When the completed form arrives back at the Orderly Room, the Administration Officer will include in the next Routine Orders that the Cadet is authorized to wear the particular Highland Kit.

5. Revoking of Highland Kit privilege

- a. The issuing of Highland Kit (Glen and/or Kilts) is a privilege not a right. The following instances could lead to revoking of Highland Kit privilege:
 - (1) Negligent care, maintenance and security of Highland Kit. Examples of negligent care, maintenance and security include:
 - (a) Dirty

- (b) Wrinkles and creases
